

CHÂTEAU RAYNE VIGNEAU

HISTORY

Madame de Rayne, née Catherine de Pontac, bought the Domaine du Vigneau in 1834.

The official 1855 classification recognised Vigneau among the top wines of Sauternes. In 1867, the well-known wine broker Daney ranked it in first place, immediately after Yquem. Albert de Pontac, a great-nephew of Madame de Rayne, named the estate "Rayne Vigneau" in her honour.

Rayne Vigneau, a solid value of the appellation, claims, vintage after vintage, a style full of intensity, length and freshness.

THE WINES

Rayne Vigneau has all the excellent qualities of a legendary fine wine. It has a particularly intense style, fresh with a long finish on the palate. This wine contains amazing freshness, to drink young or to keep in the cellar.

Madame de Rayne is very much in the line of the "Grand Vin", receiving the same care and attention but choosing a more immediately accessible style, both fresh and intense.

OUR OPINION

These white wines have no equal, completely different from what we are used to, the classification talks about herself.

After the success of our first importation, we now offer you 3 new wines that will bring you or your client to another level.
